- PART III.-CONSTITUTION OF FOREST RESERVES AND DECLARATION OF PROTECTED FORESTS
- |  |    |  |
|--|----|--|
| Commissioner may constitute forest reserves and declare protected forests.               | 7. | (1) The Commissioner may constitute, as forest reserves, any of the following lands: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) lands at the disposal of the Government.</li> <li>(b) any lands in respect of which it appears to the Commissioner that the forest growth on such lands should be protected or reserved or forest growth be established.</li> </ul> (2) The Commissioner may, by notice in the Gazette, declare any such lands to be a protected forest. |
| Preliminary notification of intention to create a reserve and declare protected forests. | 8. | (1) Before constituting any lands as a forest reserve, the Commissioner shall publish in the Gazette a notice <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) specifying, as nearly as may be, the situation and the limits of the lands;</li> <li>(b) declaring that the lands now form a protected forest;</li> </ul>  |

- (c) declaring whether the lands are at the disposal of the Government or are lands coming within paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 7;
  - (d) declaring that it is intended to constitute the lands a forest reserve, either for the general purposes of the Government or for the particular use and benefit wholly or in part of any class or persons or for the benefit of any community; and
  - (e) appointing an officer, hereinafter referred to as a "reserve settlement officer," to inquire into and determine the existence, nature and extent of any rights, claimed by or alleged to exist in favour of any persons or communities or brought to the knowledge of the said officer, affecting the lands or any other rights in or over the lands which it is proposed to constitute a forest reserve.
- (2) (a) If, for any reason, the reserve settlement officer appointed under this section is unable to perform his duties, the Commissioner may, by notice in the Gazette, appoint any person to act on his behalf or as his successor.
- (b) The notice so appointing may have retrospective effect for a period not exceeding one month.
- (3) The Commissioner may, by notice in the Gazette, revoke any notice under section 7 or 8.
9. Upon publication of the notice aforesaid, the reserve settlement officer shall:
- (a) immediately cause the particulars contained therein to be made known in the areas under the jurisdiction of the councils in which the lands are situated by causing the same to be read and interpreted in the local language in every customary court in the said areas under the jurisdiction of the councils, and also as far as he considers essential, by informing in writing the chiefs of the communities dwelling on, and the councils having jurisdiction over, the lands aforesaid; and
  - (b) fix, and in the manner aforesaid, make known a period within which, and a place to or at which, any person or community claiming any right or rights in or over or affecting the lands which it is proposed to constitute a forest reserve shall either send in a written statement of claims to him or appear before him and state orally the nature and extent of his or its alleged rights.

Notice of inquiry.

Duty of reserve
settlement officer
at inquiry.

10. (1) As soon as possible after the expiration of the period fixed by the reserve settlement officer, he shall:
  - (a) inquire into and determine the limits of the lands specified in the notice aforesaid; and
  - (b) determine the nature and extent of any claims or alleged rights affecting the lands which have been preferred or brought to his notice.
- (2) The reserve settlement officer shall keep a record in writing of:
  - (a) all such claims and alleged rights;
  - (b) all objections which may be made to such claims or alleged rights; and
  - (c) any evidence in support of or in opposition to any claim or alleged right.

Reserve
settlement officer
to have judicial powers.

11. For the purposes of the inquiry, the reserve settlement officer shall have all the powers conferred by law upon a magistrate.

Reserve
settlement officer
may join or sever claims.

12. The reserve settlement officer may, at any time during the inquiry, join any number of claims or sever any claims joined and, in his findings, may join any number of claims or sever any claims which were formerly joined.

Submission of reserve
settlement
officer's findings on completion of inquiry.

13. Upon the completion of the inquiry, the reserve settlement officer shall submit to the Chief Conservator for the consideration of the Commissioner his findings, describing the limits of the lands specified in the notice under section 8 and setting forth, with all such particulars as may be necessary to define their nature, duration, incidence and extent, all claims and alleged rights preferred or brought to his knowledge in respect of the lands and admitting or rejecting the same wholly or in part.

Right may be extinguished or modified by Commissioner.

14. Where the reserve settlement officer has admitted wholly or in part any right or claim and, in the opinion of the Chief Conservator, the exercise of such right or claim or any part thereof:
  - (1) would stultify the objects of the proposed forest reserve;
  - (2) would seriously hinder the efficient working of the proposed forest reserve; or
  - (3) would do serious damage to the proposed forest reserve;

the Commissioner

- (a) may extinguish any such rights or claims and shall either give monetary compensation or grant in exchange similar rights on other similarly situated land either within or without the final boundaries of the forest reserve;
- (b) may confine or restrict any such rights or claims to certain areas either within or without the final boundaries of the forest reserve or the exercise of such rights to certain times of the year ;
- (c) may make an enclave or so amend the boundaries of the proposed forest reserve so as to exclude, from the forest reserve, any areas over which such rights or claims have been admitted;
- (d) may add such additional rights as he shall consider it just and equitable to allow, notwithstanding that the reserve settlement officer has not admitted such rights; or
- (e) may adopt wholly, or in part, anyone or any combination of the above methods of dealing with the matter;

Provided that, in altering the external boundaries of the proposed forest reserve, the Commissioner shall not include any area which lies outside the original limits set out in the notice published in accordance with the provisions of section 8.

- 15. (1) The Commissioner shall, thereupon, publish a notice in the Gazette specifying:
  - (a) the lands which it is finally intended to constitute a forest reserve;
  - (b) the rights which may be exercised within the proposed forest reserve; and
  - (c) any other special conditions affecting the proposed forest reserve.
- (2) The notice shall be made known in the same manner as the notice published under section 8 and to every person who, and the representative of any community which, preferred any claim or in respect of which any claim was brought to the knowledge of the reserve settlement officer.

Notification of lands to be reserved and
rights admitted

- 16. (1) Any person who has made a claim on his own behalf or, where a claim has been made on the behalf of a community, the representative of that community, may, within three months of the date of publication of the notice

Appeals from notice specifying
lands to be reserved and
rights admitted.

under section 15 appeal to the High Court in whose area of jurisdiction the proposed forest reserve is situated against that portion of the notice which affects his claim or the claim made on the behalf of the community which he represents.

Order of Commissioner
constituting a forest reserve.

- (2) The Chief Judge of the High Court may make rules in respect of appeals and may in the rules prescribe fees to be paid in respect of appeals.
  - (3) The decision on appeal of the High Court shall be final.
17. (1) After the time limited under section 16 for appealing to the High Court has elapsed or, if there has been an appeal, after the determination of the appeal, the Commissioner may, after taking into consideration the decision on appeal of the High Court, make an order constituting as a forest reserve the lands in respect of which an inquiry has been held.
- (2) The order shall set forth:
    - (a) the limits of the lands which constitute the forest reserve; and
    - (b) all rights affecting the same, as set forth in the notice published under section 13, or established by the court upon appeal against such notice.
  - (3) The order shall be published in the Gazette and made known in the same manner as the notice published under section 8.
  - (4) From the date of the publication of the order in the Gazette such lands shall be a forest reserve.

Revision or modification of orders constituting a forest reserve.

18. (1) Any order made under section 17 may be revised or modified by the Commissioner and such revision or modification may be given retrospective effect.
- (2) In any revision or modification made under this section the Commissioner may, after further inquiry, if such be deemed necessary;
    - (a) exercise the powers conferred on him by section 14;
    - (b) add such additional rights as he shall consider it just and equitable to allow, notwithstanding that such rights had not been admitted in the notice published under section 15;
    - (c) provide for any two or more contiguous forest reserves being joined to form one forest reserve.

19. Every right in or over land in respect of which no claim shall have been made to the reserve settlement officer or of which no knowledge shall have been acquired by that officer shall be extinguished:
Provided that if any person shall, within one year of the date of the publication in the Gazette of the notice under section 8, claim, and satisfy the Commissioner that he was possessed of, a right in respect of which he might have made a claim and that, through ignorance of the fact that an inquiry was being held or for other sufficient reason, he failed to make such claim, the Commissioner may direct:
  - (1) that such right shall be revived;
  - (2) that such right shall be modified; or
  - (3) extinguished in accordance with the provisions of section 14.
20. During the period between the dates of the publication under section 8 of the notice of the intention to create a forest reserve and of the order under section 17 constituting the forest reserve:
  - (1) no right shall be acquired in or over the lands comprised within such notice otherwise than by succession or under a grant or contract in writing entered into with the approval of the Commissioner; and
  - (2) no act or thing shall be done in contravention of section 42 except that any right admitted in the notice published under section 15 may be exercised, to the extent and in the manner described therein, by the communities or persons to whom it was admitted, without prejudice to any subsequent revision or modification as provided for in this Law.
  - (1) Without the consent of the Commissioner first obtained, it shall be unlawful for any person or community to alienate, by sale, mortgage or transfer, any right admitted in an order made under section 17.
  - (2) Any sale, mortgage or transfer effected without consent shall be null and void.
22. Any right in a forest reserve admitted in an order made under section 17 and not exercised for a period of ten years shall be deemed to be extinguished.

Extinguishment and revival of rights.

No new right be acquired without approval in lands to be constituted a forest reserve

Rights in forest reserves may be alienated without approval

Non-exercise of rights.

- Rights of way and watercourses may be closed.
23. Provided that another right of way or watercourse is available, the Commissioner may, by notice in the Gazette, close any right of way or watercourse in a forest reserve.
- Lands and rights may be granted absolutely to Government.
24. Notwithstanding any customary law to the contrary, any person, and the chief or head of any community on behalf of the community, shall be entitled to enter into any agreement to grant and convey absolutely to the Government any lands, and any rights in and over any lands, owned by him or it, which it is proposed to constitute a forest reserve under the provisions of this Law.
- Marking of boundaries.
25. The Commissioner may require any person, with any necessary workmen, to enter upon any lands for the purpose of erecting any beacons or demarcating or cutting any boundary lines within and around any lands which it is proposed to constitute a forest reserve or a protected forest and around any portions of lands included as enclaves.
- Power to de-reserve.
26. The Commissioner may, by notice in the Gazette, direct that; from a date named therein, any lands or any part thereof, constituted a forest reserve under section 17, shall cease to be a forest reserve or part of that reserve and, thereupon, from that date such lands shall cease to be a forest reserve or part of such reserve:
Provided that the rights, if any, which may have been extinguished therein, shall not revive in consequence of the cessation.

PART IV.-ADMINISTRATION OF FOREST RESERVES AND PROTECTED FORESTS

- Control of forest reserves and protected forests.
27. The protection, control and management of forest reserves and protected forest shall be exercised and directed protected by the Commissioner.
- Working plans.
28. Where there is a working plan the Commissioner shall publish a notice in the Gazette setting out:
- (a) the name and nature of the working plan;
  - (b) a general description of the area covered by the working plan; and
  - (c) the place or places at which a copy of the plan may be inspected by any interested person.

29. The Commissioner may cause to be taken, from any forest reserve or protected forest, any forest produce, which may be required for public purposes upon payment of a fair and public reasonable price therefor, which price shall not exceed the amount of such fees and royalties as may be specified in regulations made under this Law and are generally applicable in respect of the reserve or protected forest whence the forest produce was taken.

Forest produce required for public purposes may be taken.

PART V.-LOCAL GOVERNMENT PLANTATIONS AND FOREST RESERVES

30. At the request of a council, a forest plantation or forest reserve constituted under and in accordance with the provisions of the Local Government Law may, on notification to the effect being published by the Commissioner in the Gazette, be placed, temporarily, under the protection, control and management of the Commissioner.

Control of local government forest plantations and forest reserve. (Cap. 79)

PART VI.-LICENCES

31. (1) The Commissioner may grant licences, in such form and in such terms as he may decide, for the taking of forest produce in forest reserves.
(2) Except with the approval of the Commissioner, no licence shall be transferred.

Grant of licences by Commissioner.

PART VII.-DISPOSAL OF FEES AND ROYALTIES

32. (1) All fees received under this Law shall be paid by the officer receiving them into the Treasury.
(2) Royalties received under this Law in respect of forest produce shall, when individual ownership of the lands from which the forest produce has been taken can be proved, be paid to the individual owner.
(3) In all other cases such royalties shall be deposited in the Treasury of a district council in the name of the local councils having jurisdiction in the area in trust for and on behalf of such village, community or group of persons as is specified by the Commissioner.

Disposal of fees and royalties

(4) A local council shall not withdraw any sum so deposited or pay any such sum to any village, community or group of persons other than in accordance with a direction from the Commissioner charged with responsibility for Local Government.

(5) Before giving a direction under subsection (4) the Commissioner shall consult with the inhabitants of the village, the community or the group of persons concerned.

PART VIII.-REGULATIONS

Power of Commissioner to make regulations and prescribe penalties for contravention thereof.

33. (1) The Commissioner may make regulations for all or any of the purposes following and may specify the area or areas to which all or any of the regulations shall apply:
- (a) providing for the management, protection and utilization of forest reserves;
  - (b) providing for the protection of forest produce in forest reserves by:
    - (i) prescribing the time at which and the manner in which the rights set forth in the order constituting the reserve may be exercised;
    - (ii) prohibiting the taking or destruction of any specified kind of timber or minor forest produce in the exercise of such rights as aforesaid; and
    - (iii) prohibiting the exercise of all or any of such rights as aforesaid in any specified part of a forest reserve;

43. Nothing in the preceding section shall prohibit the exercise by any person or community of any right in a forest reserve if such right has been recognized in the order constituting such forest reserve except such right be restricted in accordance with other provisions of this Law.

Saving in respect of section 42

44. Whoever in a protected forest, except as provided in section 20 (2) or except with the authority in writing of a forest officer not below the rank of Assistant Conservator, does any act or thing prohibited in a forest reserve by section 42, shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of twelve thousand five hundred naira or to imprisonment for six months or to both such fine and imprisonment and in addition thereto may be required by the court to pay a sum equivalent to the fees and royalties payable on any forest produce removed or damaged and also such amount, if any, as the court may consider just as compensation for any damage done.

Offences in protected forest.

45. In addition to any penalty imposed for an offence against the provisions of this Law or regulations made hereunder, the court may order:

Additional penalties.

- (a) the forfeiture and disposal, as the court may direct, of any forest produce in respect of which the offence was committed, or any instrument or thing with which the offence was committed;
- (b) the destruction of any farm or plantation made in contravention of section 42 in a forest reserve, or, on the application of the Commissioner, that the produce of the farm or plantation be confiscated and thereafter disposed of in the discretion of the Commissioner.
- (c) the cancellation of any licence or permit held under this Law;
- (d) that, where no licence or permit has been taken out and the offender should have taken out a licence or permit, a sum equal to the amount of the fees and royalties that should have been paid in respect of the licence or permit be paid to the authority or person who would otherwise have been entitled to such fee or royalty; or
- (e) that a portion, not exceeding one half, of any fine that may be recovered from a person convicted by the court be paid to any person or persons on whose information the offence was detected and proved.

Forest officer
offences.

46. (1) Where a person is reasonably suspected of having committed an offence against this Law, other than an offence under section 41, a forest officer, not below the rank of Assistant Conservator may, instead of taking proceedings against that person in court, compound the offence and receive from that person a sum of money by way of compensation for the offence that he is suspected of having committed.
- (2) On such payment being made:
- (a) the suspected person, if in custody, shall be released and no further proceedings shall be taken against that person in respect of that offence; and
  - (b) any produce seized as being liable to forfeiture shall be restored and any proceedings pending in court in respect of the same person on the same facts shall be withdrawn.
- (3) The officer compounding the offence may then give one of the following directions:
- (a) that the full amount of such compensation shall be paid into the Treasury;
  - (b) that a portion, not exceeding half the full amount of such compensation, be paid as a reward to the informer, and the balance paid into the Treasury.

Presumption as to ownership of forest produce.

47. When in any proceedings taken under this Law, or in consequence of anything done under this Law, a question arises as to the ownership of any forest produce, such forest produce shall be presumed to be the property of the Government unless the contrary is proved.

Defences in proceedings.

48. It shall be a sufficient defence to any proceedings, civil or criminal, against any forest officer, or other person acting under the directions of the Commissioner to show that the officer, or that other person, was, in good faith, purporting to carry out the provisions of this Law.

Legal
proceedings.

49. In any proceedings for an offence against any provision of this Law, the State may be represented by any forest officer not below the rank of Assistant Conservator or by any other forest officer authorized generally or specifically in relation to any particular proceedings or class of proceedings by writing under the hand of a forest officer not below the rank of Assistant Conservator.

1. (1) These regulations may be cited as the Forest Regulations.
- (2) These regulations shall apply to all forest reserves, protected forests and to all lands at the disposal of Government and to communal lands other than:
  - (a) any area for which a notice of withdrawal has been published under section 3 of the Law;
  - (b) any area excluded from the operation of these regulations by a notice given under section 34 of the Law; and
  - (c) any local government plantation or forest reserve placed under the guidance and direction of the Commissioner under section 30 of the Law.

2. In these regulations:
"the Law" means the Forest Law;
"licence" includes any agreement contracted or authority to exploit a specified area for a specified period of time;
"permit" means an authority to exploit specified forest produce subject to the provisions of regulation 18, or to commit specified acts in a forest reserve.

Definitions.

3. (1) The Chief Conservator may by notice in the Gazette order that free permits shall be given for the exercise of any rights set forth in an order constituting a forest reserve.
(2) Such permit shall be obtainable from an Assistant Conservator and shall state the right, specify the kind of forest produce and define the area and the period of time within which such right may be exercised.
(3) Any timber or forest produce taken under such a permit shall be for the domestic use of the holder of such permit only and such permit shall not authorize the holder thereof to take or destroy any protected tree nor authorize him to employ any person to assist him in taking or to take on his behalf any timber or forest produce.
(4) Any person who, being a holder of such a permit in the exercise of the rights under such permit,
(a) destroys any protected tree; or
(b) employs another to assist him in taking or takes on his behalf any timber or forest produce; or
(c) sells, exposes for sale or barter any timber taken by him, shall be guilty of an offence.

Law shall not affect the right of any person to any free grant of forest produce, to which he was entitled previous to the grant of the licence and which may be required for bona fide domestic purposes, including the construction of agricultural implements, fences, vessels, holdings, bridges or other works but not for sale or barter.

(2) Any licence granted under section 31 of the Law shall be subject to the following terms:

- (a) an Assistant Conservator may order that any timber may be taken from the area to which such licence relates where it is required on behalf of Government or a local government council if the licensee is unable to supply the requirements upon reasonable commercial terms;
- (b) an Assistant Conservator may order that any tree shall be cut down and removed in the area to which such licence relates in the course of the construction or maintenance of any road, telegraph or other public work;
- (c) an Assistant Conservator may issue permits for the construction of canoes within the area to which such licence relates subject to any agreement with the licensee.

12. A licensee under section 31 of the Law shall be required to take out in advance permits in the Form 1 in the Schedule to cover the removal of specified forest produce.

A licence to take out permits.
(Schedule)

13. (1) With the approval of the Commissioner, the Chief Conservator may invite tenders for or may advertise for sale by public auction a licence to exploit a specified kind of forest produce in a specified area on such terms as he shall think fit.

Tenders.

(2) Tenders or bids may include the fees and royalties payable or such fees and royalties may be payable in addition.

(3) The Chief Conservator shall not be bound to accept the highest or any tender or bid.

14. Any licence granted under section 31 of the Law may be terminated:

Termination of licence.

- (a) by the Commissioner:
- (i) if the licensee, his agents, servants or workmen fail to comply with any of the conditions of such licence; or
- (ii) if the licensee becomes insolvent or his business is wound up or goes into liquidation.
- (b) by the licensee:
by giving the Commissioner six months notice in writing of his intention to do so.
- Issue of permit. (Schedule) 15. Any permit issued by an Assistant Conservator under the provisions of sections 42 and 44 of the Law shall be in Forms 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 in the Schedule and shall be issued subject to the conditions printed thereon and such other conditions as shall be stated at the time of issue. 19.
- Issue of permit where licence has been granted. 16. Where a permit is issued for an area in respect of which a licence has been granted under section 31 of the Law it shall be read subject to the terms of such licence and it shall not authorize the taking of any tree specified in such licence without the permission of the licensee, and the terms of such licence shall not be affected by the issue of a permit in any way. 20.
- Fees and royalties payable in respect of a permit. 17. The fees and royalties payable in respect of the permit and the girths assigned to the trees specified in the permit shall be at the rates in force at the time of the issue of the permit as prescribed in the tariff authorized under the provisions of these regulations: 22.
Provided that an Assistant Conservator with the approval of the Chief Conservator may:
- (a) remit the fees and royalties in the case of timber to be taken for samples; 23.
- (b) reduce the fees and royalties on any dead, fallen, hollow or mis-shapen tree;
- (c) reduce the fees and royalties on any tree removed in the course of silvicultural operations; and
- (d) reduce the minimum girth for trees to be taken under the permit below that prescribed in the tariff, prepared under regulation 28. 24.
- Period of permit and value, etc. 18. (1) A permit shall be valid for six months from the date of issue when it shall expire unless extended in accordance with this regulation.

30. An Assistant Conservator may issue or cause to be issued free permits in the Form 1 in the Schedule to fell protected trees in forest reserves and protected forests:

Free permits to fell. (Schedule)

- (a) where the timber is required by the Forest Department for the construction or maintenance of any building, bridge, fence or road under its management and control or for the preparation of specimens of timber or for similar purposes;
- (b) where the timber is required for any work of public utility in the construction or maintenance of which no contractor or other middleman is engaged with a view to profit, and if other species of suitable timber are not available in any other forest within a reasonable distance:
Provided that no such free permit shall be issued to any village, community, school committee or other public body to which an annual grant is made from the public revenue or to any school or other public institution maintained by Government or for the maintenance of which a contribution is made from public revenue; and
- (c) when the trees are required to be removed in accordance with a working plan.

31. The holder of a fuel permit shall stack all firewood taken at such places and in such a manner as an Assistant Conservator may direct.

Firewood.

32. (1) Any person other than an officer or employee of the Government (or a Local Government Council who has been duly authorized in this behalf) who has in his possession or who uses any marking hammer or instrument for impressing marks upon timber except it has been registered in accordance with these regulations shall be guilty of an offence.
- (2) Any person, who uses a marking hammer or instrument for impressing marks upon timber which has been registered outside the area specified in the certificate of registration relating thereto, shall be guilty of an offence.

Marking hammers and instruments
to be registered offences.

33. Any person, who alters or effaces any mark impressed upon timber by a forest officer or any person authorized by a Local Government Council to mark timber without the authorization both of an Assistant Conservator and the owner of the timber, shall be guilty of an offence.

Marks not to be altered or effaced.

List of marked trees may be annexed to permit.

34. An Assistant Conservator may require any applicant for a permit in Form 1 of the Schedule to mark with his marking hammer and a consecutive number below the place where it is intended to cut every tree that he wishes to have included in the permit and to submit in duplicate a list of such trees showing the mark and numbers they bear, the species and girth of each tree, its location, the nearest village thereto and the name of the Local Government Council within the area of whose authority the tree stands and this list shall be endorsed by him and annexed to the permit.

Registration of marking hammers, etc.

35. (1) An Assistant Conservator may register any marking hammer or marking instrument presented to him for registration and shall issue a certificate of registration therefor upon the payment to him of a fee of One Hundred Naira.
- (2) Such certificate of registration shall state the area in respect of which the marking hammer or marking instrument may be used.
- (3) Such registration shall be valid for one year from the date thereof.
- (4) An Assistant Conservator may refuse to register any marking hammer or marking instrument, which gives an impression which in his opinion is unsuitable.

Timber not to be moved until marked.

36. Any person who shall move any piece of timber taken under a permit from the place where it was felled until every piece of timber to be moved and the stump of the tree from which it was derived have been marked with the Forest Division pass hammer (and, if an Assistant Conservator shall so direct, with the marking hammer or marking instrument of the owner in addition) shall be guilty of an offence.

Waterways.

37. (1) Any person who shall permit any timber taken by him to obstruct or endanger the free navigation of any water way shall be guilty of an offence.
- (2) Any person, other than the owner or his agent authorized in that behalf, who sets adrift any timber formed into a raft or fastened to the bank of or anchored in any waterway shall be guilty of an offence.
